

TUESDAY EVENING, MARCH 22.

THE B & O'S NEW PHILADELPHIA LINE.
The Baltimore and Philadelphia railroad will begin the laying of a second track from Wilmington, to Baltimore this week. They have secured two hundred colored men from Virginia, and work will be started at both ends at the same time. About sixteen miles of the track are already completed, leaving fifty miles yet to build. The new Delaware Avenue Station in Wilmington, which cost about $25,000, will be open to the traveling public next month. The company has now prepared plans, and will begin work on a new passenger station at Water and Market streets, in Wilmington. The new structure will be in the Queen Anne style, and 80 feet long by 30 feet deep. The work on the Philadelphia station at Twenty-fourth and Chestnut streets, the foundations of which are already laid, will be resumed this week and the building pushed to completion.

CRAZED BY GAMBLING.—M. E. Virgo, a member of a wealthy English family, Sunday was consulting in Secretary Kemmingway's private room of the Christian Association in Chicago for assistance to help him conquer an almost uncontrollable passion for gambling. Suddenly he became a raving maniac, and wildly flung a bottle of muriatic acid. A fierce struggle ensued, during which Kemmingway was forced to a third story window, and would have been hurled to the pavement had not aid arrived. The bottle of acid was broken, and Virgo drank part of it, burning his mouth and throat badly. He was removed to a hospital, and his chances of recovery are few.
